

REBEL FAMILIES MEETING MINUTES
JANUARY 6, 2015

MEETING CALLED TO ORDER 7:04PM
14 Members were in attendance

PRINCIPAL ' S REPORT: Not present.

MINUTES: Motion to accept: Laura Ciszewski, seconded: Pattie Rinehart and passed.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY: Nothing to report

TREASURER ' S REPORT: Not present.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

- a. Spirit Shop: Deb Farrar reports the need for someone to take over for her next year.
- b. Indoor Concessions: Carol Trolli reports that the refrigerator is installed, and that Lowes tax exemption form was so complicated and she did not have answers to all the questions to complete it properly, so we ended up paying tax on the refrigerator. Julie Galicz suggests we post a list of concession dates in the stand for volunteers to fill out and Ann Smrekar suggests we also post those dates online. Carol Trolli reported the loud buzzing noise that the microwave is making and Cindy Sellers said she will bring the microwave in from the outdoor concessions stand to replace it.
Due to some start-up money irregularities, it has become necessary to sign the money envelope stating the start-up amount also, and to please call Julie Galicz if the start-up amount is short.
Carol Trolli is working on a document that explains concessions procedure.
- c. Outdoor Concessions: No report
- d. Scholarship: Jackie Rosenberger reports that the scholarship applications will be sent to the Guidance Department in February.
- e. Grants: Jackie Rosenberger reported that Principal Ward plans to meet with staff members on February 6th to explain the Grant Process and hand out the application forms.
The Grant Committee ' s first meeting will be held after the February Rebel Families ' meeting.
- f. Refreshments: No report.
- g. Bricks: No report.
- h. Class Representatives:
  1. Freshman: No report.
  2. Sophomore: Rebecca Harmon attempted to contact Ms. Baller but received no response.
  3. Junior: No report.
  4. Senior: Laura Ciszewski and Julie Galicz report that Julie is working with Student Council on a Chipotle Fundraiser in which the class will receive 50% of sales.
They are also talking about doing a "National Hat Day" in which students pay $1.00 to wear a hat during school.
The class needs $2200.00 more in order to keep Prom ticket costs to $40.00. Student Council has hopes of raising enough money that tickets will be only $30.00.
- i. Twitter: No report

- j. Web Page: Rebecca Harmon has ideas for the new website and will meet with Julie Galicz Jan. 10th to discuss them.
- k. After Prom: Julie Galicz and Coletta Fenner report that they will start sending donation solicitation letters first to city departments and businesses and then to parents.
Committee meetings will start soon.
- l. Prom Fashion Show: Joyce Fiebig and Coletta Fenner will co-chair and Laura Ciszewski said she might also.

OLD BUSINESS:

- a. Grace Garver filed for an extension and we have until 2/15/15 to file our tax return.
Paperwork needed has been given to Grace.
- b. Laura Ciszewski's name has been removed from the web page account.

NEW BUSINESS: Julie Galicz wants to change the organization's name from "Rebel Moms" to "Rebel Families". In February she wants to brainstorm ideas for increasing family involvement. She hopes to reach more families through emails and is looking for fresh ideas that will inform families that "Rebel Families" is also an academic supporter and benefits all students at South High School. She also plans to streamline the monthly meetings to make them shorter and more productive.

Carol Trolli motioned to call the organization "Rebel Families", seconded by Deb Farrar and passed.

MEETING ADJOURNED AT 7:47PM