

REBEL MOMS MEETING MINUTES
NOVEMBER 4, 2014

MEETING CALLED TO ORDER 7:06PM

PRINCIPAL' S REPORT: Principal Ward announced that South received the Community Spirit Award from the United Way Campaign for raising a school record $7560.00 and he praised the students for their amazing efforts in giving back to their community.

He is looking forward to meeting with his Principal' s Advisory Group on November 13. The topic of discussion will be "How do you learn in the 21st century?"

He noted that the applicants to the National Honor Society overwhelmingly responded to the essay topic "Find the Rebel Way" with the ideal that positive force results in positive change.

Ann Smrekar expressed her concern regarding the poor lighting along Shankland in the morning during the period before the daylight savings time change in the Fall. Principal Ward said he will contact the city of Willoughby to see if something can be done for next year.

The web site will now showcase the school' s top 100 most improved GPA' s and Principal Ward would like to provide lunch for those students in the top 20. He' ll be putting forth a motion for the Rebel Moms to approve the amount of money he would like to use from the Principal' s Discretionary Fund.

MINUTES from Oct. 7, 2014 meeting: Motion to accept: Kim Fauceglia, seconded by: Jackie Rosenberger and passed.
