

REBEL MOMS MEETING MINUTES
DECEMBER 2, 2014

MEETING CALLED TO ORDER 7:02PM
20 members were in attendance

PRINCIPAL' S REPORT: Vice Principal Blackburn stood in for Principal Ward. She discussed South High' s cultural changes focused on academics and said THIS (Teachers Helping Inspire Students) which provides interventions to students who are failing has been very successful. She reported that the Academic Department Chairs' meeting focused on going back to the basics, including more writing in order to better prepare students for college.

She mentioned the following community activities:

12/4/14 Willoughby Tree Lighting Ceremony
12/12/14 South High Blood Drive
12/18/14 Roundtable Discussion: College Expectations

Guest, Joyce Grady came to discuss the Mock Trial Program that has been set up by the Ohio Bar Association, the Ohio Supreme Court and the Center for Law Education in Ohio. The mock trial will be an all day competition on 1/30/15. In order to prepare, students will meet prior to that, on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:00-9:00PM at South, in room 172. All grades are welcome, and interested students may sign up at the office.

PRESIDENT' S REPORT: The Powder Puff Game fundraiser was called off because the stands were unsafe due to the weather, and the water to the stadium had been shut off. We are looking to reschedule in either March or April.

MINUTES from Nov. 4th meeting: Motion to accept: Vicki Ruple, seconded by: Carol Trolli, and passed.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY: Received a Thank You from Teri Menn for the hotdogs & buns that Rebel Moms donated to the United Way Campaign.

Rick Motuza passed away and we will be sending a sympathy card and flowers on behalf of the Rebel Moms. Jackie Rosenberger made a motion to spend $100.00 on the flower arrangement out of the Rebel Moms Fund, motion seconded by Patty Rinehart and passed.

TREASURER' S REPORT: Motion to accept: Vicki Ruple, seconded by Kim Knotts, and passed.

COMMITTEE:

- a. Spirit Shop: Deb Farrar needs volunteers for Santa Shop. The dates are 12/3, 12/11 & 12/18 from 5:30-8:00PM.
- b. Indoor Concessions: The new outlet has been installed and we can now put in the 14cu ft. refrigerator. Starting 1/1/15 the price of donuts will be raised to $1.00. Jackie Rosenberger motioned to keep beverage prices $1.75, seconded by Vicki Ruple, and passed.
- c. Outdoor Concessions: Cindy Sellers said pipes were detached at the outdoor stand and water was everywhere. Carol Trolli will take some of the leftover pop from the outdoor stand to use at the indoor stand. Cindy will try to return the rest to Coke. She will also put out a request for clean up help, which Patty Rinehart will send to Key Club.
- d. Scholarship: Will be starting in February.

- e. Grants: Principal Ward will have a staff meeting and will email the information and application form to the teachers after January 1st.
- f. Refreshments: Nancy Zenobi will set up the refreshment table for the Football/Cheerleader awards ceremony.
- g. Bricks: Nothing to report.
- h. Class Reps:
 - Freshman: Yankee Candle sale did not go well.
 - Sophomore: Nothing to report.
 - Junior: Pattie Rinehart will meet with the class reps to come up with ideas.
 - Senior: Talked again about rescheduling the Powder Puff Game. Student Council is also considering a Chipotle Fundraiser.
- i. Twitter: Nothing to report.
- j. Web Page: Laura Ciszewski wants her name removed from the credit card and Rebecca Harmon's added.
- k. After Prom: Julie will work on donation letters after Christmas.
- l. Prom Fashion Show: Will start signing up volunteers in January.
- m. Powder Puff Game: See above

OLD BUSINESS: Patti Rinehart will inform Key Club of Rebel Moms' need for volunteers to work concessions during the basketball games.

NEW BUSINESS: Grace Garver filed for an extension and we have until 2/15/15 to submit our taxes.

The 1/6/15 Rebel Moms meeting will be held at Panini's at 7:00PM

MEETING ADJOURNED 8:30PM

Respectfully Submitted, Kathleen Kovach