

REBEL MOMS MEETING MINUTES
OCTOBER 7, 2014

MEETING CALLED TO ORDER 7:04PM

PRINCIPALS REPORT: Principal Ward reported that he is forming a student advisory committee comprised of members from different student groups in order to give a voice to a wider range of the South High student body. He hopes to build a culture within the school with the motto "We are an academic institution". Students in Daneen Baller's business class are selling T-shirts with the slogan printed on them. The United Way campaign is under way.

MINUTES from Sept. 9, 2014 meeting: Motion to accept: Kris Knotts, seconded by: Carol Trolli and passed.

CORRESPONDING SEC: Jeanette Nelson sent a card to Mr. Pavalko congratulating him for the birth of his daughter in September.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Motion to accept: Kris Knotts, seconded by: Carol Trolli and passed.

SPIRIT SHOP: Deb Farrar will soon be signing up volunteers to work during Santa Shop.

INDOOR CONCESSIONS: Carol Trolli is looking for parents of basketball players to be in charge of manning the concessions stand during the games. She also expressed concern that people are being allowed into the concessions stand without her knowledge.

BINGO: No report.

OUTDOOR CONCESSIONS: Cindy Sellers reported that Willoughby Middle School held a Cross Country meet at South that raised over $700.00 in concessions sales.

SCHOLARSHIP: No report.

GRANTS: No report.

REFRESHMENTS: We need volunteers to serve refreshments for the Fall Sports Awards Ceremony on 11/11/14 and the Football Awards Ceremony on 11/25/14.

BRICKS: No report.

CLASS REPS:

Freshman: Yankee Candle Fundraiser is under way

Sophomore: No report

Junior: No report

Senior: Julie Galicz reports that she has received and will sign a contract with the Hilton Garden in Mayfield for the Prom Fashion Show to be held there on March 12, 2015. She mentioned that the room has large screens that ads can be projected onto and suggests someone solicit businesses in the community to purchase advertisements.

TWITTER: Lisa Stevens is interested in taking over next year.

WEB PAGE: No report.

AFTER PROM: No report.

OLD BUSINESS: The Budget for 2014-15 will have an extra Line to show what we donate to the Athletic Department. Motion to accept: Rebecca Harmon, seconded by Cindy Sellers, and passed.

We are now OFFICIALLY a 501C3 tax-exempt organization.

NEW BUSINESS: Julie Galicz brought up the idea of allowing students to fulfill their community service hours by volunteering for concessions sales during activities (except bingo if student is underage).

We are trying to set up a date for the Powder Puff Game.

Kathy Kovach will head the Prom Fashion Show Committee.
