

REBEL MOMS MEETING MINUTES
SEPTEMBER 2, 2014

MEETING CALLED TO ORDER 7:05PM

PRINCIPALS REPORT: Mr. Patrick Ward mentioned how glad he is to be at South and that the students have made a great impression on him and continue to exceed his expectations. He spoke of the web site issues that he expects will be resolved by Open House.

Rebel Moms presented Athletic Director, Jim Mormino, a donation for $1,610.00 made payable to the Athletic Department, from the Concessions stands sales. Mr. Mormino thanked the Rebel Moms for all their efforts.

MINUTES: Motion to accept: Kim Fauceglia, seconded by: Ingrid Williams, and passed.

CORRESPONDING SEC: Jeanette Nelson explained what the Corresponding Secretaries duties are. She reported that sympathy cards were sent to the families of: Mr. Pollock, Scott Gramley and the father of South's Athletic Booster President, John Grzincic. Jeanette also explained the Rebel Moms volunteer hours recording sheets.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Jeanette Nelson presented the Treasurer's reports for the months of July and August. Motion to accept: Kim Fauceglia, seconded by: Vicki Ruple, and passed.

SPIRIT SHOP: Deb Farrar asked for volunteers to sell spirit wear during Open House.

INDOOR CONCESSIONS: Carol Trolli spoke about purchasing a refrigerator to hold the concessions stand food. Jim Mormino reported that a work order has been submitted and the refrigerator should be installed soon. Ann Smrekar explained Bingo Concessions and sent around the volunteer sign up sheets.

OUTDOOR CONCESSIONS: Cindy Sellers explained her responsibilities and the responsibility of each sport to sign up volunteers to work during their games. Cindy reported that Coke replaced an old cooler with a new one.

SCHOLARSHIPS: Jackie Rosenberger will chair the committee and Ingrid Williams will co-chair. Jackie explained what the Scholarship Committee does and asked for volunteers that do not have a Senior student this year.

GRANTS: Jackie Rosenberger gave examples of past grants that have been awarded to staff members.

REFRESHMENTS: Nancy Zenobi received a thank you card for opening day refreshments from Principal Ward and the staff at South.

BRICKS: Kim Fauceglia discussed the bricks location at the new stadium entrance. She will take care of the Bricks Sales Fundraiser.

CLASS REPS:

Freshman – Vicki Ruple: Adviser TBA

Sophomore – Cindy Sellers: Reports nothing new. Asked for someone to take her place as class rep.

Junior – Patty Rinehart: Reports nothing new.

Senior – Laura Ciszewski: Prom will be at the Hilton Garden Inn off Wilson Mills Rd. Prom Fashion Show location is TBA. Julie Galicz will be class rep. and is negotiating prices. Senior advisers will advise the underclassmen for future years. Student Class Representatives Sam Stollman (President), Shawn Mackey (VP), Matt Wilson (Secretary) and Ryan Farrar (Treasurer) were present. Julie Galicz said she met with them to discuss their expectations for Prom and is looking forward to working with them.

TWITTER: Cindy Sellers will continue to run the Rebel Mom's Twitter account.

WEB PAGE: Laura Ciszewski said to go to South Home page and click on Rebel Mom's.

AFTER PROM: Julie Galicz and Coletta Fenner. Only Seniors and their Prom guests are admitted. Senior South High students only, may go to After Prom if they do not attend Prom. It will be held at the Lost Nation Sports Park. There will be inflatables, casino, games and tickets to win prizes. We will start signing up volunteers and asking for donations.

BUDGET COMMITTEE: Coletta Fenner explained the budget deposits and expenses. $4000.00 from the Scholarship Funds will be transferred to the Principals Discretionary Fund to better support all students. Motion to accept: Kim Fauceglia, seconded: Patty Rinehard, and passed.

NEW BUSINESS:

Web page shadow: Rebecca Harmon volunteered.

Kids Kicking Cancer Fundraiser asking for spirit wear donations for a Chinese Auction. Julie Galicz is finding out details.

Discussed the Suggestion Box idea for Rebel Moms and Rebel Bucks Prize Raffle for meeting attendees. Rebel Bucks can be used to purchase spirit wear.

MEETING ADJOURNED AT 9:15